WELCOME TO VCUarts DANCE!

Letter from the Chair

Dear Dance Enthusiast,

VCUarts Dance + Choreography is delighted you are here joining us as we kick off our spring 2024 performance season. It is our honor to welcome you to this year's performance of VCU Dance Now showcasing a dynamic range of new works crafted by our esteemed faculty and world renowned guest artists.

It is a pleasure to share this evening with you in celebration of the wonderful work we do within the department while also highlighting the importance of a community coming together witnessing live performances and the sharing of so many varied movement stories.

Thank you,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Scott Putman". The signature is fluid and cursive, with "Scott" on the left and "Putman" on the right, connected by a loop.

Scott Putman
Chair, VCUarts Dance + Choreography

PROGRAM

En el Vacío

Choreography by Eric Rivera

Music: Una Palabra by Carlos Varela, Contraste by Damian Verdun

Lighting Design: Gretta Daughtrey

Costume: Eric Rivera

Rehearsal Assistant: Sophia Berger

Dancers: Adi Denenberg, Zoelle Bleazard, Isabella Mansapit Makayla Woolner

Program note: "En el Vacío" explores the intricate nuances of love and the excruciating agony of separation. The piece masterfully captures the essence of a lost connection, evoking a deep sense of longing and nostalgia. It challenges you to contemplate the profound impact that a single word can have on our lives.

Dancers: Kailah Doles, Mars Dunston, Erin Dutton, Khiana

Gilmer, Abby Hardy, Casey Morse, Solana Rios, Taylor

Rolfe, Eliza Seaton, Holly Trenbath, Makayla Woolner,

Emma Wynkoop

Program Note: "Old, New, Borrowed & Blue" is a restaged work for VCU. It is comprised of excerpts from different repertoires, a playground in which I add or subtract and adapt pieces from my own body of work from the past 10 years. It is an opportunity to look at my work from different angles. This is an invitation to revisit compositions written for the human body and create diverse materials from emotional embodiment and collaboration. This is a response to our reactive emotions; remixing different point of my creative journey, interrogating the vows we make with our bodies, looking creation with a fresh eye, and gaining a renewed sense of ourselves.

ARTIST BIOGRAPHIES

MK ABADOO (they/she) is artistic director of MKArts. Abadoo devises intergenerational and immersive dance performances that combine Africanist and touch-rich movement vocabularies with place honoring community building. Moving from a spirit of joy and ease, their work amplifies the lives, stories, and wisdom of gender expansive, queer, Black cultures. MK's work has been commissioned by The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, The Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center, the University of Richmond, Dance Place, the Pennyroyal Arts Council Alhambra Theatre, and the Dance Exchange. She was a 2017 U.S. Fulbright Fellow and a 40 Under 40 awardee from Prince George's County Social Innovation Fund. MK was included as a "rising star" in Dance Magazine's 2018 25 to Watch and in 2019 was awarded by Richmond, VA Dance Awards for their choreography in a commemorative justice site-specific work performed at Richmond's African burial grounds. They are a 2022 Dance/USA Artist Fellow and an assistant professor in the Department of Dance + Choreography at Virginia Commonwealth University, where they chair the Racial Equity, Arts and Culture Core in the Institute of Inclusion, Inquiry and Innovation.

NORBERT DE LA CRUZ, III was born in Bayombong Nueva Vizcaya, Philippines and raised in Los Angeles, CA Norbert De La Cruz III is recognized for his versatility in performance and choreography. He is a collaborative artist with roots in classical and contemporary dance. After moving to New York in 2006, he received a BFA in Dance from the Juilliard School followed by an MFA in Dance from Hollins University. He is a New York and Los Angeles based freelance dance artist.

Norbert's movement practice has brought nationwide attention to dance companies and educational programs. His physicality is shaped by his training experiences from the Gabriella Foundation, LA County High School for the Arts, Marat Daukayev School of Ballet, The Juilliard School, and through his performance career as a professional dancer. He started training in classical dance at age 11 (Cecchetti and Vaganova) with ballet masters Vera Ninkovic and Marat Daukayev. Professionally, Norbert has performed as a soloist with the Metropolitan Opera's production of Aida, Aszure Barton & Artists in Germany & Austria (Blue Soup & Busk), Balletto Teatro di Torino (Italy), Joe Goode Performance Group, Sydney Skybetter & Associates, Aspen Santa Fe Ballet, and Complexions Contemporary Ballet. As a pre-professional, he was honored the Music Center's 17th annual Spotlight Award, the Emerging Young Artist Award, Youth America Grand Prix 2nd place in non-classical, and represented the Juilliard School at Kodak Theatre's first annual Dizzy Feet Foundation Gala in Hollywood, CA. Norbert recently been casted in Warner Brothers Pictures film adaptation of Tony-winning musical In The Heights. Additionally, Norbert has performed works by choreographers José Limón, David Parker, Adam Hougland, Johannes Wieland, Ohad Naharin, Aszure Barton, Jerome Robbins, Larry Keigwin, Jiri Pikorny, Hernando Fernando Magedan, Spenser Theberge, Jeremy McQueen, Camille A. Browne, Dwight Rhoden, Desmond Richardson, Lightfoot & Leon, Crystal Pite, Alonzo King, Zachary Tang, Gregory Dawson, and Jirí Kylián.

ROBBIE KINTER discovered his love of dance and music while earning his BFA in Sculpture at VCU. Robbie has created over 50 original scores for dance, film, and theatre including works for Amaranth Contemporary Dance, Robert Battle, Clancy Works, and Starr Foster Dance. Robbie's love of contact improvisation can be seen in the many dances he's choreographed over the past four decades. Two of his collaborations; Deconstructed Dialogues, with Martha Curtis, and Them, with VCU Dance founder Frances Wessells, were selected for the Choreographers Showcase at the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center, University of Maryland. His video dance tantrum was selected for the 18th Annual International Screendance Festival and is in the collection of The American Dance Festival. Robbie created sound design for An Oak Tree at Firehouse Theatre; Medea Myth at VCU Theatre; and with Ryan Jones; Equus and John for Cadence Theatre. Robbie plays drums for the music ensemble Rattlemouth and is the Music Director for VCUart's Department of Dance and Choreography.

STEPHANIE MARTINEZ Chicago-based choreographer, Stephanie Martinez, moves her audiences along a journey guided by the kinetic momentum of her award-winning works spanning over 15 years. With original creations for Joffrey

Ballet, Ballet Hispanico, Luna Negra Dance Theater, Charlotte Ballet, Sacramento Ballet, Bruce Wood Dance, Nashville Ballet, Tulsa Ballet, Kansas City Ballet, BalletX, and Milwaukee Ballet, among others. Theatre credits include Chicago Shakespeare Theatre and the Lyric Opera of Chicago. Martinez's versatility expands the boundaries of contemporary ballet movement. Martinez has created over 70 ballets on companies and collegiate programs across the country. Martinez has received numerous grants for her work and is continually recognized for her work as a female artist of color. Dubbed "a chameleon" of choreography by the Chicago Tribune, Martinez's psychologically revelatory works challenge the viewer's notion of what's possible.

Martinez is the founder and artistic director of PARA.MAR Dance Theatre in Chicago, IL established in July 2020.

TREBIEN POLLARD is an assistant professor of Dance + Choreography. He received training at the Alvin Ailey American Dance Center, Florida A&M University, Florida State University, Martha Graham School of Contemporary Dance, and from a number of gifted teachers and choreographers.
